

The CUB Study

Communicating and Understanding your Baby

Supporting communication between parents and babies from birth

Researchers at the Telethon Kids Institute are trialling a world first program that helps parents understand their baby's early social and communication abilities and empowers parents to interact with their baby in a way that supports their early development.

We are seeking pregnant women who:

- Have a family history of Autism, ADHD or intellectual disability;
- reside in the Perth Metro Area

For further information, please contact our team:

 6319 1012

CUBS@telethonkids.org.au

 0435 123 825

clinkids.telethonkids.org.au

